1963 ♦ TALISMAN

Perhaps we do not all remember the lunch when Burton Abbott put thirty-nine grapes in his mouth all at once, or when the visiting girls' tennis team went to the wrong locker room. These, though, are the incidents, along with the football games, dances, and rallies, that enhance the everyday. We of the staff hope that this book will recall some of those occurrences which make school life, above a classroom education, an experience that molds our characters and our dreams.

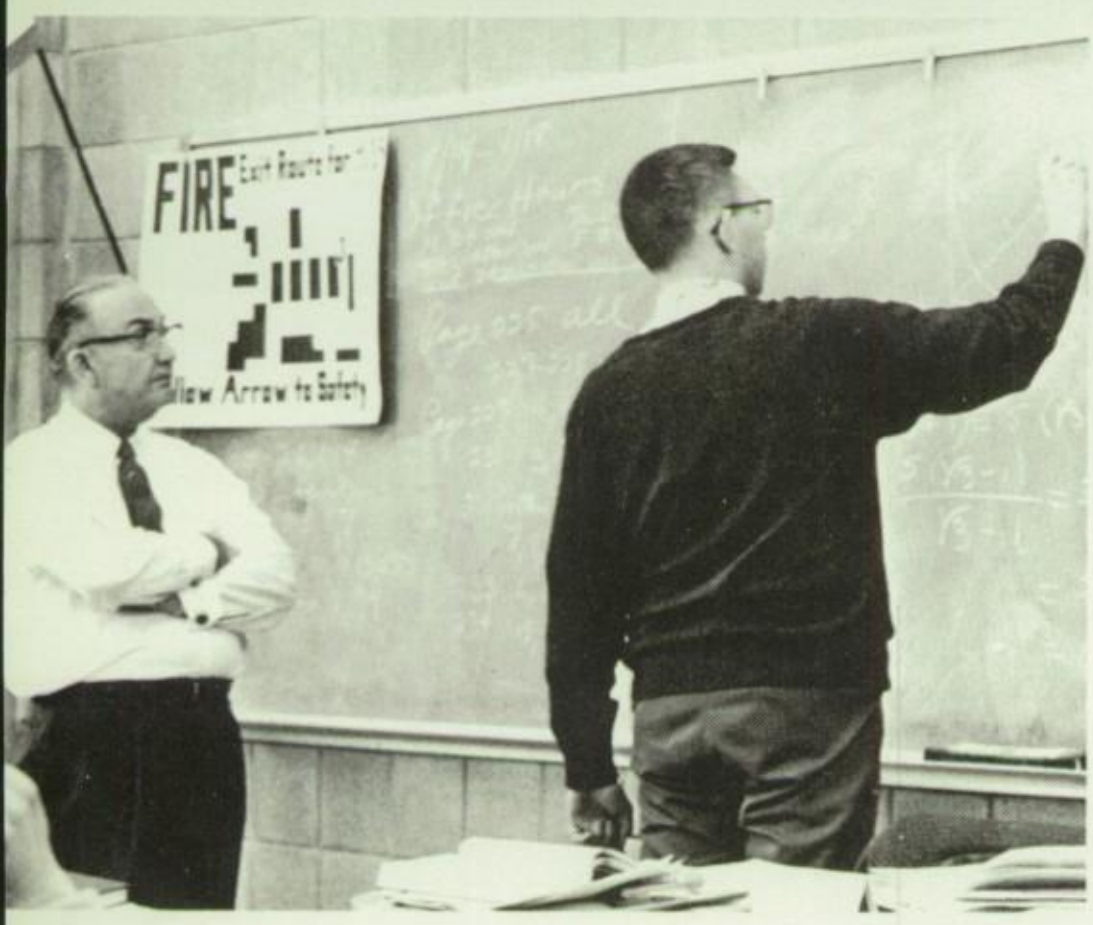
THE TALISMAN

1963



DEDICATION

The man to whom this year's TALISMAN is dedicated is a teacher who will be remembered by many of Saratoga's faculty and student body as the mathematics teacher who first guided them down the labyrinthine and often treacherous paths of high school algebra, geometry, and trigonometry. For Mr. William Huff has now served as mathematics educator and mentor at two high schools - Los Gatos and Saratoga - and two generations of students owe a great part of their mathematical development to him. His retirement this year will be the loss to Saratoga of one of its finest and most successful teachers. In Mr. Huff, the heading "Dedication" becomes a double entendre representative of an entire teaching career.

IN MEMORIAM

His name was Herbert Almond, but few people knew him as anything but "Herbie." He was a school custodian, a smiling and affable personality who made friends quickly with almost anybody, whether they were of the faculty, the administration, the student body, or merely visitors to the Saratoga campus. He was, one teacher remarked, one of the school's genuine personalities, and, in his own way, added as much to its atmosphere as anyone on campus.

Herbert Almond, or "Herbie", is now gone, dead of leukemia. Perhaps the only meaningful thing that can be said about his death now is to be found in the phrase, repeated over and over throughout the school: "It just won't be the same..."

With everything else, there was tragedy for the class of 1964. On January 2nd of the new year, Richard Dolloff, a sixteen year old Junior, was killed in an automobile accident while approaching Saratoga. His life, so abruptly ended, had, like the lives of all people his age, been one of beginnings and potentialities, of promises and possibilities for the future awaiting development and maturity. Now that he is gone, the seeds of character, of talent and intellect within him can never reach the fruition which it is the purpose of education to encourage. This is a loss for all of us.

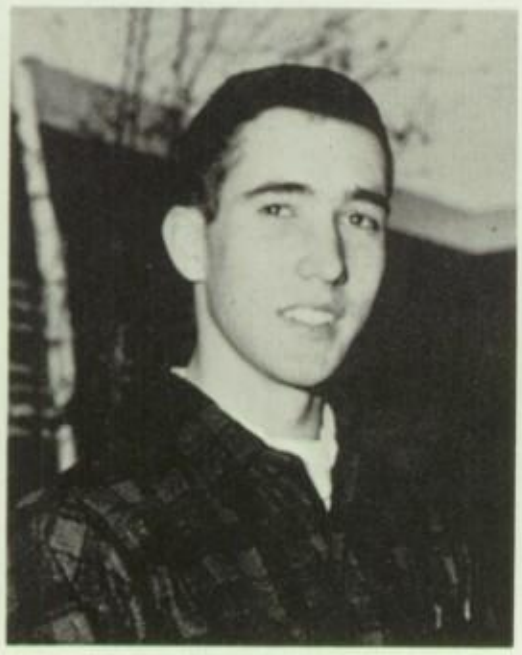
STUDENT GOVERNMENT

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS



PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Student government, like a growing tree, requires care and nourishment to mature. At Saratoga, we are fortunate to have the guidance and cooperation of our faculty and administration, yet the success of any school depends on its students. We can be proud of the standards of achievement at Saratoga High, and of the sense of dedication and determination that has made this year so rewarding. On behalf of the student government, I extend sincere appreciation for letting us serve you.

John Lenahan
Student Body President

Rick Harville, Vice President

Betty Anderson, Secretary

Glenda Pearson, Treasurer

STUDENT EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Working as an aid to the Student Council, this vital organization considers and selects student proposals to be forwarded to the council itself. BACK ROW: Bonasera, Lyons, Lindenbaum, Runge, Caswell, Murrell, Priest, Trimble, Jorgensen, Smith, Crane. FRONT ROW: Palm, Coviello, Harville, Lenahan, Anderson, Pearson, McNulty, Maddams.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This council, the backbone of Saratoga's student government, gives the student body an important voice in the administration of their school. BACK ROW: Anderson, Harville, Lenahan, Pearson, Palm, Bowlin, Shoor, Morse, La Mantia, Murrell, Dunn, Caswell, Jorgensen, Cato, Priest, Shoor, Cooper. SECOND ROW: Cameron, Abbott, Cavanaugh, Boatright, Card, Mir, Maddams, Sears, McNulty. THIRD ROW: Oberhaus, Christian, Lindenbaum, Hunter, Gomez, Calamia, Clayton. FOURTH ROW: Bonasera, Topp, Runge, Lyons, Coviello, Smith, Crane, Driscoll, Palmer. FRONT ROW: Trimble, Smith, Holmes, Lockhart, Farrow, Powk, Pennypacker.

BUILDING & GROUNDS COMMISSION

Mickey Bonasera, Commissioner

Saratoga's proud record as a school with a clean campus can be attributed to actions of the Saratoga student body, prodded by the hard-working members of this commission, who are, BACK ROW: Coley, Cavanaugh, McNulty, Stuart, Bonasera, Cato, Binkley, Waite. FRONT ROW: Wharton, Smith, Deurell, Brown, Palmer.

BOYS' ATHLETIC COMMISSION

Jim Priest, Commissioner

FINANCE COMMISSION

Barbara Smith, Commissioner

Barbara Smith and members of her commission have been kept busy raising money for Saratoga's monetary affairs. This and fine doctoring of books may have kept the austerity program one jump ahead of the bill collectors. From LEFT TO RIGHT: Cameron, Smith, Powk, Powk, Smith, Pearson.

PUBLICITY COMMISSION

Penny Trimble, Commissioner

INTER CLUB COUNCIL

Sue Palm, Commissioner

This council is composed of the presidents of our school's clubs, who are, starting with the BACK ROW: Clendenen, Pool, Seitter, Palm, McKenzie, Butler. FRONT ROW: Caswell, Oberhaus, Topp.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMISSION

Maggie Runge, Commissioner

Seen gathered casually around, on, and under the ladder, in a momentary lull before the Christmas dance, are the happy people who decorate and so on, and who are usually lacking in recognition. We hereby recognize them, starting ON THE LADDER: Johnson, Maddams, Pearson, Cato, Loe, Kittel, Runge. UP FRONT: Margolis, Buttner, Kiersted, Arakelian, Worley.

SAFETY COMMISSION

Kirke Jorgensen, Commissioner

Whether it be faulty signal lights or banana peels, our Safety Commission is equipped for almost every conceivable disaster, as one can see above. BACK ROW: Loe, Friendly, Policeman, Martin, Abbott, Saale, Maddams, Coley, Maddams, Robinson, Cavanaugh. FRONT ROW: Mir, Cato, Jorgensen, Lechleiter, Stuart.

MUSIC COMMISSION

Hester Lyons, Commissioner

The happy souls who pulsate by the jukebox every lunch are indebted to the members of this commission, who, in spite of all, manage to produce sweet music in a variety of ways. From LEFT TO RIGHT: Hunter, Oberhaus, Brunner, Stuart, Hollis, Brunner, Krag, Lyons, Crane.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC COMMISSION

Sherrie Maddams, Commissioner

FALCON'S NEST

Stan Murrell, Commissioner

In this portrait is caught the true spirit of our Rally Commission, which has managed to enliven campus life one way or another. Herb, who happened by at just the right time, has always been a valuable asset to any activity and should be included with the members, who are, BACK ROW: Brown, Oberhaus, Glennon, Benson, Loe. SECOND ROW: Olian, Margolis, Palmer, Bowlin, McNulty, Randolph. THIRD ROW: Moore, Drake, Lockhart, Smith, Olson, Gray, Eldred. FOURTH ROW: Maddams, Mir, Boatright, Oberhaus, Christian, Cavanaugh, Calamia. FIFTH ROW: Maddams, Davis, Dusel, Robinson, Schember, Lindembaum, Balgooyen.

RALLY COMMISSION

Bette Lindenbaum, Commissioner

FALCON

Kathy Crane, Editor

Below are the people responsible for this book (minus a few who were afraid to be photographed.) They appear to be doing massive research on the design and history of yearbooks, but really aren't. BACK ROW: Richards, Russell, Cage, Pahl, Anderson, Richard, Crane. FRONT ROW: Redd, Trimble, Caswell, Driscoll, Powk, Runge, Smith.

TALISMAN

Philip Caswell, Editor

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

This year's A. F. S. finalists, pretending to read a letter with our exchange student, are, as pictured from LEFT TO RIGHT: Stuart, Coviello, Shannon, Anderson, Card. To the right, Rossana Maria Vittoria Coviello and her "sister", Barbara Smith, appear to be looking a a book. Even such a resemblance is highly untypical of what really goes on around their house. It seems they are usually playing cards, doing homework, washing dishes or their hair, but such things are unsuitable for posterity, and unphotogenic at that.

FRENCH CLUB

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE

One of the school year's major events was the Junior Play, "Arsenic and Old Lace" by Joseph Kesserling. The comedy deals with two sweet little old ladies who live in Brooklyn with a deluded nephew who imagines himself to be Teddy Roosevelt. The old ladies have a peculiar habit of poisoning lonely old gentlemen! Despite lines learned at the last minute and lights turned on and off when nobody was near the switches, the production was very successful. Teddy's charges up San Juan Hill were magnificent, but it is a wonder the bodies never smelled. The cast wishes to express its special thanks to the Director, Miss Marjorie Nickson, who brought chaos to seeming order.

THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK

Rehearsal time was limited by finals. Dressing areas were cramped, co-educational, and chaotic. The play was not easy to present, with two acts of five scenes each, involving lightning-quick changes, and numerous special effects.

And yet THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK was a success, smoothly and effectively presented. The reason? "We want to express our gratitude to Mr. Alden Peterson for his outstanding direction," said a cast representative at the last performance. "I couldn't have asked for a finer group of people to work with," replied Mr. Peterson. All expressed thanks to the production staff. That, and a little bit of luck, is all it takes.

EXPLANATION

Our noble Sports Editor, Mr. Russell, almost passed out when he was told that this is where the book normally ends. "How could You?" he cried in a perfect fit of anguish. "You have disemboweled the very essence of athletics!" at which point he began to writhe around on the floor, foaming at the mouth. To pacify his painfully bewrought state, we obtained, by untold hardship, eight free pages. We therefore invite you to open the hard, visible shell to your right and gaze, enthralled, upon a display of unparalled physical prowess.

Spring maids frolicking on the green.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Mike Handley's work accounts for 145 of the 188 non-I. D. photos in this book. Of the remaining, 38 commission and club prints are by Hal Matson Photographers, who also did the senior portraits. I. D.'s were by National School Studios. American Yearbook processed all but the supplement, done by National Printing Company. The book was designed and managed by Philip Caswell, and completed through the aid of Mr. Dallas Sceales, the Faculty Advisor, and the Staff; specifically, Tom Russell and Gary Pahl on Sports, John Gordon who wrote the Dedication and Memoriam, Maggie Runge, Mike Huxtable, Betsy Anderson, Kathy Crane, Bruce Richard, Janet Driscoll and the others who assisted beyond the call of duty. To those unnamed in the student body, faculty, and administration who also helped make this year's Talisman, goes the final acknowledgment.

Pictures are of Senior Sneak Day: Mr. Johsens being dunked, the Mighty Pyramid, and a clambake.
